

PRESS RELEASE - Sin City Halloween

The 14th Annual Fetish & Fantasy Halloween Ball. “The Worlds Wildest Halloween Party”. With Halloween landing on a Saturday night this year and the propensity for the wild at heart to flock to Las Vegas on weekends, you can expect that this annual Halloween party is going to be the focal point for the who’s who in the nightlife world. Latex, leather, lingerie, and saran wrap; daring adults shedding their day to day inhibitions, and gathering for an evening of good old fashioned, naughty, voyeuristic fun.

Held this year at the New Joint and convention center at the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, some 4000+ guests are expected to share in this year’s revelry. Strict admission requirements dictate that everyone wear something fetishy, fantasy like, or a Halloween costume. Expect everything from the skimpiest of nighties and skin tight latex, to the most elaborate creations and makeup ever seen outside Hollywood.

There’s something for everyone during the course of this 6 hour extravaganza. World class DJ’s such as Donald Glaude and Scooter & LaVelle, fire breathers, and live theatrical performances by the likes of seasoned scene veterans Girls in Rubber, Chain Goddess, and Perish, to mention a few. And let’s not forget the audience participation area, the exhibitionist stage, where party attendee’s can join in the action, strut their stuff, or receive their penance for bad behavior. It’s a literal smorgasbord of erotic activity and entertainment.

The atmosphere is electric, with lights, lasers, pulsating music, and writhing masses of human sensuality everywhere you turn. As cameras are allowed at the event, there were many opportunities to find giddy damsels and manly studs ready to strike a twisted pose for anyone wishing to take a photo.

There is no drop in energy as the festivities rally into the wee hours of the morning and fresh bodies arrive at 1 a.m. on the late night shift. There’s even an official after hours bash at Body English slated to begin at the Ball’s conclusion at 4 a.m. Only in Las Vegas can you forget time and party 12 hours straight. Held every year for 14 years now, the Fetish and Fantasy Halloween Ball should be on everyone’s list of must attends. To get further information on this event, visit their website at www.halloweenball.com . We expect to see you there this year in your naughtiest attire, posing for the cameras. Until then, don’t do anything we wouldn’t do....
